

Evening of performance and entertainment

Evening:
Wednesday, September 15, 2010, 7-10pm

Evening in support of the production of Medea presented by Scapegoat Carnivale Theatre

In collaboration with Scapegoat Carnivale Theatre, Joyce Yahouda Gallery is pleased to invite you to an evening of performance and entertainment.

The event proposes a collaboration between the worlds of visual art and theatre. Featured performers include: Catherine Kidd (spoken poetry), Thierry Marceau (performance), Céline B. La Terreur (performance), a Greek chorus, and one of Samuel Beckett's shortest television plays by Scapegoat Carnivale Theatre.

This evening is in support of upcoming production of the Greek classic Medea by Euripides, playing at Montreal's historic Centaur Theatre from October 21st-30th.

The event will be staged alongside the gallery's current exhibit "Extreme Painting: Painting Under Siege", curated by art critic Nicolas Mavrikakis
